

Quiz

This lesson covers multiple choice questions related to event handling in JavaScript.

1

In event-driven programming, the web page reacts to user's actions. Is this statement True or False?

2

What does the `addEventListener()` method do?

3

What is the correct syntax to remove an Event Listener from the button

What is the correct syntax to remove an Event Listener from the button named `myButton` based on an event called `"hover"` ?

4

Scrolling a page by pressing the upward key from keyboard is an event which is a:

5

What is target in an Event object?

6

how many types of events are there?

7

Which property is used to fetch the code of a key when it is pressed?

8

Which `method()` is used to retrieve the mouse click?

9

What is event propagation?

10

Which of these is not a Window event?

Check Answers