

Introduction

Non-modifying algorithms are algorithms for searching and counting elements. However, you can also check properties on ranges, compare ranges or search for ranges within ranges.